- raise more funds (on average 25%+)
- communicate more clearly
- engage your board at a higher level
- and many more benefits!

[1] You First: Develop a personal growth plan that supports your life.

[2] Clarity is Key: Staying in your lane, having a clear vision, and knowing what a win looks like is vital to a sustainable ministry.

[3] Focus Leads to Funding: One page of focused words will help you raise more money and recruit better board members.

[4] Normal People Can Raise Money: The way we approach fundraising with strategy and accountability can make or break your ministry.

[5] Relationships First, Money Second: Developing a donor-centric organization allows you to focus on your donors and increase retention.

[6] Your Board is Your Megaphone: The quality of your organization will not rise above the quality of your board.

[7] New People Brings New Perspectives: Rotation is a healthy and natural way to prevent stagnation and gives the board opportunities for renewal.
